ACASTA GAP (BASIC) INSURANCE

Target Market Statement

This document has been prepared by Acasta Europe Limited on behalf of Acasta European Insurance Company Limited to provide an overview of our GAP BASIC Insurance product. It is intended to help distributors understand the target market for this product, both at new business and at the point of renewal. Additionally, distributors should consider whether any changes in circumstances may result in some features of the products no longer being suitable (e.g, distribution channel, features/covers, communication method, and payment method).

Acasta European Insurance Company Limited, authorised and regulated by the Gibraltar Financial Services Commission for the conduct of UK business, is a co-manufacturer for this product.

Full details are contained within the policy documentation.
